

The South East Region's Learning Centres offer a calm, quiet and flexible learning environment that delivers Queensland Education approved programs and nationally accredited Certificate courses to both school age and mature aged students. At the campuses, graduating means graduating with a pass and opening up doorways to employment and/or further study.

The diverse range of students from a range of backgrounds, experiences and age, highlights the inclusive nature of our school.

Our informal approach includes no uniform, fast tracked programs and classes offered beyond normal school hours.

Our vision and values are evident by our:

- Second Chance Learners
- Teachers and Staff who care
- Advanced programs
- Recognition of difference
- To graduate and
- Step Up

If you want to change your circumstances and take the step to a better future then you need to visit Eagleby, Helensvale or Varsity Campuses because when it comes to education...

SERLC provides an alternate setting for students completing their Queensland Certificate of Education in years 10 to 12 since 1992. The campuses offer a range of programs from the traditional subjects to the ever-growing list of vocational certificate offerings. The small school environment aims to reduce any barriers to learning a student has experienced and provide the opportunity and flexibility to achieve successful outcomes.

At SERLC we require students to be Present, Positive and Productive
